The house Pontisella stands in the historical Stampa. This old patrician house, built in 1849 by the Pontisella family, has lost little of its originality over almost two centuries. With numerous rooms, and situated at the foot of the Sciora group, behind its thick garden and house walls it exudes, the peace that is Italianità.

The re-opened B&B Pontisella combines nature with art, culture and architecture. The rooms vary in size and furnishings. The beds are by Nils Holger Moormann or Manzali, young furniture manufacturer from Berlin. Walking on 200-year-old larch flooring one repeatedly encounters classic furniture originals with unique twists. It is not the crowing of the cock in the garden that gets you out of bed in the morning, but the lovingly prepared breakfast with all sorts of homemade and regional products. In Butéga Pontisella the Bündler Label Okro shows a selection of products and objects indicative of and exuding the tension between craftsmanship and design. Complemented by trouvailles from Bergell and the Alpine region.
